

Towards Sustainable Growth

Hitachi Metals is striving to achieve new growth through “Change” and “Challenge.”

We will introduce the driving force behind that from various perspectives.

The Hitachi Metals Group possesses a diversified business structure based on the development of materials and provides products to a wide range of industries.

The business structure, capable of meeting the wide-ranging needs of society through broad-based business and fusion of technologies, is the driving force behind the growth of the Hitachi Metals Group.

Our arena of activity has now expanded to the global stage. The Hitachi Metals Group strives to achieve new growth through “Change” and “Challenge.”
